February 2005

An underrated source of top-flight Napa Cabernet Sauvignon, Lewelling's 2002s are a notch below their exquisite 2001s. More forward and less structured, but beautifully made, they offer additional proof that this winery merits more notice than it receives. The 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon offers a dark ruby/purple color, pure crème de cassis fruit, medium to full body, and excellent purity as well as suppleness. It should be consumed over the next decade. A blue chip effort in every vintage it is produced, the 2002 Cabernet Sauvignon Wight Vineyard is a medium to full-bodied, elegantly-styled Cabernet revealing extraordinary purity of crème de cassis intermixed with smoke, licorice, and damp earth characteristics. Layered, opulent, and full-bodied with tremendous upside, it needs 2-3 years of cellaring, and should age well for 15-20 years.
