October 2014

The 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon shows lots of Pauillac-like crème de cassis, cedar wood, forest floor and fruitcake. There's a touch of white chocolate, a nice influence of spice and the wine is full-bodied, fleshy and opulent. Drink it over the next 10-12 years. The single-vineyard 2012 Cabernet Sauvignon Wight Vineyard is opaque purple, has similar aromatic and flavor characteristics to the regular Cabernet Sauvignon, just with more concentration and extract. The tannins may also be more elevated, but there is such an extravagant level of fruit, they're not that noticeable. This is a beautiful wine that cascades over the palate, with a multidimensional personality, with background sweet oak and loads of blackberry and cassis fruit, licorice and camphor. Drink it over the next 12-15 years. I'm a big fan of wines from Dave Wight.
